ABOUT THE EVENT

The Purple Pumpkin Project is a campaign to promote awareness of epilepsy in order to understand and support those affected by the disorder as well as end the stigmas long associated with epilepsy. The project was initiated by Ron Lamontagne, former EFCT board member and dad to Kollin who has epilepsy.

EVENT DETAILS

Online registration is encouraged, but day of registration is allowed. There is a $35 individual registration fee. We encourage all runners to commit to raising funds to help us support the epilepsy community. We invite all attendees to wear purple to show their support for our cause! Medals will be awarded to the top finishers of multiple age groups. This is a family friendly event and there will be a craft table with pumpkin painting for the kids.
